Program: e e a e t, presented by Dr. James Kornder, DVM, PhD, and Marilyn Curtis

Please, everyone, come to the July meeting. Dr. Jim Kornder and Marilyn Curtis will present a good program focused on eyes. (Hey! That's a pun!) If you remember, Dr. Kornder's granddaughter was a recipient of our scholarship donation to the UGA School of Veterinary Medicine. You will enjoy the program, I'm sure.

Was that a great match, or what! Jeff Gahm did an outstanding job putting it together, the food was wonderful, the weather was doable, and I believe everyone had a wonderful time. I know I did..part of the fun was beating Noel in the class with Noel's own dog! Of course, I let him win the bitch class...<G> I tried to insert Jeff's summaries into this newsletter, but they are unreadable in Word, so I will simply attach them along with the newsletter.

In addition to the match summaries, a few more details include:

- ? 14 new people entered that have never attended our match
- ? 4 entries have returned 3 consecutive years
- ? 8 entries have returned the past 2 consecutive years
- ? 14 have returned over the past 3 years
- ? Our mail-out data base currently has 85 names (not counting GGKC members)

Interesting data, Jeff. Thank you!

Willie

Secretary report: Secretary was not present to report this month, will cover in the July meeting.

Treasurer report: Treasurer was not present to report this month, will cover in the July meeting.

Match report: Jeff Gahm and Noel Clarke

Jeff Gahm covered that status of the up coming match, that we were prepared except for the need for an Obedience judge and Tommy would be needed to judge Terrier, Hound, and Non-sporting. Chuck Crawford offered to assist someone with the judging and if required could judge as long as he had the assistance to manage the ring. Jeff had still to call a few more possibilities, Chuck and Willie would come prepared with their equipment. Jeff was going to stop by the match site and inspect for any fire ants, and deal with them prior to the match.

Noel Clarke was prepared for the match hospitality, and he and Walter would both be attending.

New business: reminder to all about the up coming GGKC picnic in August. Awards information need to be given to Lois by the next meeting, but it may be getting too late for this years presentation.

Chuck Crawford proposed that we close the meeting, Noel Clarke 2nd the proposal.

Meeting was adjourned at 7:44 PM

Attendees: Jo Gahm, Jeff Gahm, Kaitlyn Fraley, Willie Crawford, Chuck Crawford, and Noel Clarke.
